

KHJ Disc Jockey To Host Band Battle

Disc jockey Charlie Tuna of radio station KHJ will be host at the "Battle of the Bands," planned for Wednesday, April 10, by the Youth Activity Center, Lomita Recreation Center.

Beginning at 6:30 p.m. sharp, the band battle and other festivities will end at 10:30 p.m. Intermission activities are scheduled for 8 p.m. Prizes will be awarded at the conclusion of the band contest.

"Battle of the Bands" is open to any instrumental group, regardless of size, but band members must be no more than 21 years old.

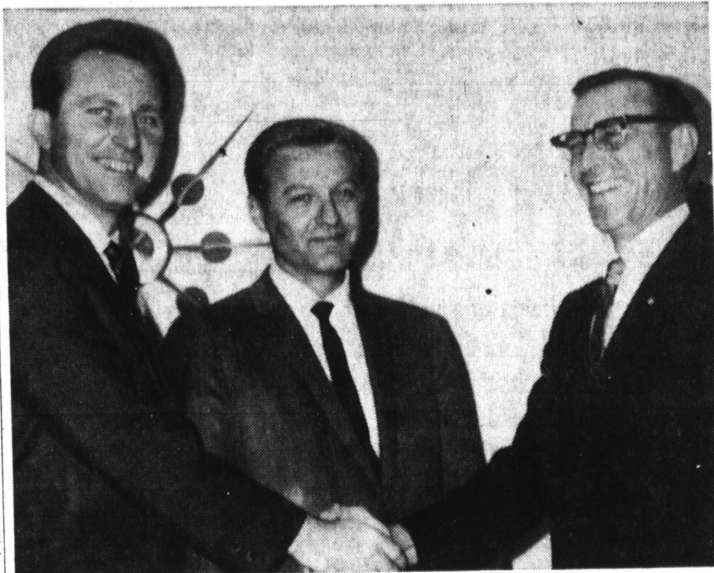

The first eight bands to fill out applications will be invited to participate. Applications must be returned to the Lomita Recreation Center, 24428 Eshelman Ave., no later than Friday, March 29. Theme for the evening is "1,001 Nights." Those attending are asked to wear casual clothes, reflecting the mystic oriental theme.

Tickets are now on sale at the center. Cost is 50 cents for YAC card holders and $1 for others. Door prizes will be awarded.

Trip Approved

John Lankford, curriculum assistant for the Torrance Unified School District, will attend a conference of the California Transcribers and Educators of the Visually Handicapped in San Francisco March 27-29.

PROMOTION ANNOUNCED... Fred Fredericks (left), president of Fred Fredericks Realty, Inc., congratulates Harold Irelan (right) after naming his assistant manager of the real estate firm. In the center is Rod Nicks, vice president and general manager of the firm. Fredericks said the appointments were made to enable him to devote more of his time to his campaign for the Assembly. He is seeking the Republican nomination in the 67th Assembly District.

Lawndale Councilman Joins Race

Lawndale City Councilman Art Griffin has filed nominating papers for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 17th District.

Griffin said he feels "I will best represent the people of this district. I feel I alone have the ability to keep this district in the Democratic fold in November."

UCLA Reveals Plans For Women's Classes

Daytime classes ranging in subject from family living and vocational opportunities to unused personal potential are among those offered to women by University of California Extension, beginning the week of March 25 in Torrance and Redondo Beach.

"Building Family Strength," a new program planned to meet family needs, will begin Thursday, March 28, 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., at the Redondo Beach home of Mrs. Ragnar Thorenson, 152 Vista del Parque.

Family problems of communication, budgeting of income, using leisure time, family relationships, a woman's expectations, and her approach to aging will be explored. The fee is $45.

Educational, vocational, and volunteer alternatives for women will be presented in "Group Counseling for Women," Tuesdays, March 26, through June 4, 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd. By means of tests, discussion and lectures, each participant will examine her goals, skills, need for further training and education, and problems she may encounter.

The $45 fee includes testing.

Growth and self-fulfillment are important goals of the ten-week workshop, "Developing Personal Potential," meeting Wednesdays, beginning March 27, 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Norman Davidson, 18335 S. Van Ness Ave. The fee is $45.
